- How long did it take you to read it?
- Feelings, thoughts, emotions you felt while reading it
- Aspects that were unclear

second prompt

ZOOM INTO THE INFORMATION IN THE PRIVACY STATEMENT, AND MATERIALIZE THE FOLLOWING:

DATA:

- What type of (personal) data is it collected through the app?
- Where is your data stored? (in the app and outside)
- For how long is your data stored?
- With whom might your data be shared?
- What happens to your data if you decide to opt out?
- Other aspects you want to know about your data?

AGENCY/OWNERSHIP OF DATA:

- How and/or when can you opt out of the app?
- Reflect on the 'bare minimum' of your personal data they aggregate: From what data collection can you opt out and what is always mandatory?
- Other aspects, thoughts or feelings you want to know about the agency and ownership of your data?

third prompt

AFTER YOU HAVE ZOOMED INTO THE PRIVACY STATEMENT, GO BACK TO THE APP, AND REFLECT ON YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH THE APP. KNOT ANY ASPECTS THAT YOU DEEM NECESSARY, WHICH CAN INCLUDE:

- Materializations of feelings related to privacy and trust
- What are your feelings of trusting the app with your data?
- Do you feel that your privacy and personal data are being protected through the app?
- Missing data, or private data you did not think about before reading the privacy statement
- Any other thoughts related to your body and experience with your data and relationship to the app
